meet mont boobalee

"It must be out of this world," commented a bystander as Mont Boobalee (pronounced Mont Boobalee) and troop stepped out of their Martian rocket ship on the school grounds.

Boobalee and his companions, Beebalee and Bumblebee Tahdah, find Moscow High School the most fascinating part of the new planet and proceed to mimic everything and anything connected with M.H.S., including the faculty. They evidently think that Moscow High School is out of this world. So is the theme of this 1953 Bear Tracks.

record making seniors tell their story

WE have come a long way since those first uncertain days when we were frosh. The usual class war has come and gone, the out of town boys and girls have been looked over and now we are ready to graduate. But oh yes, we have come a long way since our eighth grade sneak!

Remember those first days of school four years ago when we self-consciously grinned and took our rightful place as frosh? The way everyone would tease, but underneath it all we didn't mind because we were in high school at last? We did get lost for a while and couldn't quite figure out what all the bells were for. A few trips to the office, and it was no longer a mystery. Remember the thrill of our senior-frosh dates—gad, they seemed old!

Our sophomore year came and we plunged into the dark ages. Everyone has forgotten us . . . we were no longer “dumb frosh,” we were no longer anything. But after looking at the frosh and shaking our heads over such a dumb group of people, we decided we were “men about town” after all! Our class was never like that. . .

The sun came out again at the start of our third year. We were now upperclassmen who could look with scorn on all the underlings. Remember those dinners we never did get because we had to rush down to fix hot dogs . . . the '53 Cafe . . . the Junior Prom? Alice in Wonderland was the theme and remember that huge Cheshire Cat with the tooth paste smile, the tunnel leading in, and everyone threatening to use flash lights because it was so dark. Commencement came and we realized that next year

And “next year” came, too. The beginning of the end for the class of '53. Now we could smile indulgently at the frosh, and tease them. Senior-frosh dates came and went, and the frosh in answer took us out. We started a tradition with our Masquerade Ball—Mr. and Mrs. Barnes had everyone baffled when they turned out to be the king and queen! Time flew and soon it was time for the juniors to entertain us down in Davey Jones' Locker at the Prom. Our Senior Ball followed closely and it was all topped with our sneak. None of us got very sunburned! And then the end of May loomed up . . . our time had come. We took our place in our caps and gowns and waited not-so-patiently for those diplomas we worked four years for

Under the able direction of Mr. Barnes, their adviser, they gave several mixers and sponsored the annual Junior Prom. This year's theme was "Davey Jones' Locker."

The junior class earns the money for the Prom by selling concessions at games. Shown below are some of the members working between halves of a basketball game.

chorus completes successful year

A Christmas concert got the ninety member chorus off to a good start. Under the direction of Gerald Goecke, they followed this up with an operetta in April. Also in April was the Prairie Music festival which was held in Moscow. Receiving high ratings at the Lewiston Music festival, the chorus brought its year to a successful end.

senior play proves great success

THE senior class put on one of the most successful plays ever staged in this high school, November 7, when it presented "Cheaper By all-school play staged in april

THE play, "Men Are Like Streetcars," was presented on April 24 with a cast chosen from the whole student body. The plot centered around a business deal a father made which was completely bawled-up by his daughter. The main part of the daughter was well portrayed by Jolene Williams.

moscow high school calendar of activities

1952-1953

September 8—School starts today and no one seems to want to take what he signed up for. At left are a few "changes." Bunch of new teachers around here, looking as lost as the frosh! Lost one swell bus driver, Mr. Eshom. He went to bask in the California sun.

Juniors put on the first mixer of the year. Gad, what a turnout. At the right is the bonfire the night before the Lewiston game. It didn't burn early this year. September 26—Played Lewiston and tied 13-13.

What are those? Oh yes, this was the day the frosh were initiated. September 26—This was a big day—seniors gave a mixer, too.

At the right is the crowd at the first game of the year with Potlatch. In the foreground are cheerleaders Gail Torpey and Anne Carson. September 18—Girls League held its rummage sale to raise a little money for Deb's Night. September 23—FHA elected officers today.

Carrying on the tradition, the seniors took the frosh out. This was the month that KMHS went on the air. Pictured at right are several FFA boys at the initiation. Someone seems to be left in the dark.

October 3—Thespian mixer was held after the St. Maries game. Incidentally, we beat 'em. October 10—Played Central Valley and tied 12-12. Quite a game! At the left, "Tennessee" Bob Howard is giving with one of his songs at a street dance.

November 1—GAA sponsored a hayride. The hot chili really hit the spot afterwards! At the right is the cast of the senior play, "Cheaper by the Dozen," given November 7. November 3 — FHA sponsored its annual "Hobo Day" to start FHA week with a bang. Took in $40.00.

At the right the "M" Club is enjoying a banquet, served especially for the new initiates. Mighty appetizing! November 13—The annual football banquet for fathers and players was held tonight. The entertainment really brought down the house. Bonfires burned early this year in Pullman. A few of our upstanding students must have wanted a wienie roast.

Jim Harris completed two years of track without a defeat this month. Set some records, too. November 11—Eighteen seniors played their last football game for MHS over at Pullman today. We won, too. At left is a picture of the crowd at the halftime. November 13—Five of our band members went to Lapwai to take part in the All District Band.

November 14—Cries of "swing your partner" were heard and a few of the people pictured at the left were right in the middle of it. November 21-22—The district one act play was given. Got an excellent rating on it.

december

December 4—Pictured at right are some of the better looking females in the high school. They are being initiated into the Pep Club. Floretta Randall was chosen DAR representative by the senior girls. She will represent the class by writing an essay. Played our first game with West Valley the 5th. We lost. For outstanding blocking during the football games, Rich Gillespie was voted best blocker by the team.

A new club was formed recently to be called the Junior Classical League. It's for all students who are taking or have taken Latin. Couples tripped the light fantastic at the Elks Christmas dance December 30. At right is some of the crowd.

At left, members of the FHA at the winter initiation. Boys must belong to the organization, too. The all star football team may have the support of Moscow. Five boys were nominated, Arlen Keck, Bruce Brenn, Dwane Hodgson, Chuck Canfield and Harvey Neese. December 17—MHS's troop of Thespians held an initiation on stage for six new members. The people earned their points in "Cheaper by the Dozen."

Pictured at left are several members of the senior class relaxing while they wait to be entertained at the Silver Tea. Every little bit counts. Frosh saved the school five dollars by chopping their own Christmas tree instead of buying one. Student council gave its annual mixer the day school got out. So many people you could hardly fight your way through.

Everyone looks a little pale and washed out about now — pretty rough recovering from a two week vacation! January 9 — The Girls League Cabinet entertained twenty-two girls from Pullman's cabinet tonight at a dance. Boy, what a feed. Dance, dance, dance . . . at right are some of the kids at the Bear Spot doing just that. Looks like fun, huh?

January 9—"Don't Let the Stars Get in Your Eyes" was the theme of the sophomore mixer held tonight after the Pullman game. We beat them, by the way. Pictured at left are the students enjoying a national assembly given by Snow Allen, an ex-convict. It's the straight and narrow after this. This was the month that the Arlen Keck fan club was formed. Beats Van Johnson's all to pieces.

With a new year comes a renewed determination to be first in the lunch line. At the right is proof of that determination. People sure can get hungry between 8:59 and 12:00. Moscow dropped Lewiston again in a snappy ball game, 38 to 37. All the little fifth graders were moved out this month. The new grade school is done.

January 24—The Inspirational Player trophy was awarded to Dwane Hodgson. First time in three years that it has gone to a senior. FHA held a potluck dinner with a business meeting afterwards. Over forty were there to dig in. At the left are the royalty of the annual "M" Club Ball, Jane Lange, queen, and Louretta Alley and Carol Lyle, princesses.

At the left is pictured the rooting section at one of the many basketball games. February 8—"Never Smile at a Crocodile" was the theme of the junior mixer given after the Sandpoint game. Quite a crowd out. February 13—Bear Tracks staff held a mixer to raise money to go to Seattle. No money, no Seattle!

Maurice Ritchey, band leader for several years, resigned this month. Going to go back to book larnin' for awhile. Everyone seems to be leaving this month . . . one of the janitors and Mr. Robinson's secretary, Mrs. Logan, resigned, too. February 14—The seniors in the best tradition of the class sponsored a Masquerade Ball for junior and senior dates only. Only for the fun of it, not the money. Ha, ha. Pictured are some of the couples.

Semester tests over this month. No more books to crack for the lazy seniors. Pictured at the left are several hard working participants of the District Declamation contest. Got a superior, of course. February 21 — Twenty new girls were initiated into the Pep Club. Glad they don't look like that all the time.

"Boney Bones" furnished the theme for the frosh mixer after the Grangeville game. Good old Oscar down in the Biology room finally came into his own. A bunch of pinched faces and swollen arms were seen wandering around the halls after that scourge of smallpox shots this month. Pictured at the right is the American History choral reading group that went to Wallace to the Regional Declamation contest.

March 4—Played Lewiston at the tournaments tonight. We beat them by a couple of points. Pictured at left are some of the kids at Old Clothes Day. Those clothes were really ancient. Quill and Scroll initiated eight new members to add to the three officers the other day.

March 14—The District Declamation contest was held at the university today. Really were a slug of kids entered. March 14—The FHA St. Patrick's Day Brawl was held tonight. That's Ron Dunn grinnin' over there. He was crowned St. Patrick at intermission. March 15—The team took off bright and early this morning for the state BB tournament in Pocatello. Everyone was kinda bleary.

Work on the all-school play, "Men are Like Streetcars," is in full swing. At the left is pictured the tumbling team members going through one of their routines. And they act so casual! March 26—The FHA and FFA delegates took off for Boise and Twin Falls, respectively, for the state conventions. Joyce Horney was voted queen of MHS for Moscow's May Day celebration and parade.

The dancing couples pictured at the right are "Down in Davey Jones' Locker" at the Junior Prom. It was given March 28. Pam Long, girls' P.E. instructor, resigned this month, to settle down and raise big Long kids!

old clothes day

THE purpose of Old Clothes Day is to give the team a sendoff to the Lewiston tournaments, and of course, this year we took first. Besides giving everybody lots of laughs with the original costumes, Old Clothes Day finally came through with a win.

The "M" Club was represented by three lovely belles, better known as Bob Yenor, Jerry Verner, and Mick McCarty.

these pictures prove

MONT Boobalee's most enjoyable entertainment during the year was watching a typical M.H.S. boy and girl, Wilbur and Lucy, in their daily activities around school. Mars will probably be overrun with Moscow High's customs when Boobalee gets back. Here is our high school in a Martian bylktmp's eyes . . .

"Eat me!" bellows Wilbur, "I'm a cupcake." The dainty feminine echo of Lucy roars back, "Get off my back and munch me." These and many more quaint sayings haunted the lives of three hundred and eighty odd members of the student body.

This whole hectic year has been one fad or saying after another. "M" jackets and dirty cords (Wilbur stood his up in a corner at night) came into style in the fall.

This page was paid for by the First Trust Branch of the First Security Bank of Idaho, N. A. Because of its generosity we were able to include more pictures than would have been possible otherwise. We are grateful for its support.

we're out of this world

LUCY looked like a Christmas tree after a few applications of hair powder that came in orange, lemon, lime, cherry and two other delicious flavors. Even hair styles affected Wilbur in the form of an undescribable boogie hair cut . . . long on the sides and short on top. Lucy couldn't be outdone and appeared at school with a duck tail.

After the Masquerade Ball Wilbur and his buddies could be seen with pork-pie hats perched on their peaked heads.

Whenever Wilbur was left in doubt, his question would always be, "What's the skinny on the deal?" and the answer came tripping back, "I refuse to answer on the grounds that I might incriminate myself."

This page was paid for by the following firms: The Owl Drug Store, Rollefson's Grocery, Washburn Wilson Seed Company and Short's Funeral Chapel. Because of their generosity we were able to include more pictures than would have been otherwise possible.

and help to show that

WILBUR hummed, whistled, and sang every popular song that came out this year. "You Belong to Me," was one of his favorites until it was done by Homer and Jethro. It took Lucy a week to learn "Don't Let the Stars Get in Your Eyes" by Perry Como.

When asked about the night before, Wilbur would undoubtedly say, "I feel gling glongy." Things had just been "real crazy" all evening. He tried like all get out to grow a beard this year until someone gave him a wash cloth and some after shave lotion.

This page was paid for by the dentists of Moscow. Because of their generosity we were able to include more pictures than would have been possible otherwise. We are grateful for their support.

mont boobalee is home

ON dates Wilbur always picked the shows that had a Magoo cartoon or a Tom and Jerry. News reels sent chills up and down the backs of the senior boys, because of the Korean War, and how close they were to it now. Wilbur had 1-A-itis. Marlon Brando made Lucy "flip a duggle juggle" in the show "Streetcar Named Desire."

Turquoise sweaters were worn by both sexes during the cold winter months. Blue denims substituted for dirty cords to keep the boys' legs warm.

All in all, the general opinion is that the year 1952-53 has been "downright peachy!" Mont Boobalee must have thought so too, because as he left he remarked, "You never had it so good!"

This page was paid for by the doctors of Moscow. Because of their generosity we were able to include more pictures than would have been possible otherwise. We are grateful for their support.

jim hammond well liked at end of second year

FINISHING his second year of coaching football, Jim Hammond was even better liked by the players than the year before. Not only did he teach the boys football but he was also an inspiration in every-day living. The boys felt that Coach Hammond did a swell job. He never lost his temper and got stern only when he was justified in doing so. Whenever a boy had any troubles, he could always take them to the coach.

moscow has good seasonal record

ALTHOUGH the Moscow Bears didn't quite live up to previous expectations the team had a fairly successful season by winning four and losing three and tying two. The Bears started their season by winning over Potlatch in a one-sided game, 29-0. Moscow then took on Sandpoint and held the Bulldogs scoreless the first half. Then the breaks went against the Bears and Sandpoint pulled through the victor.

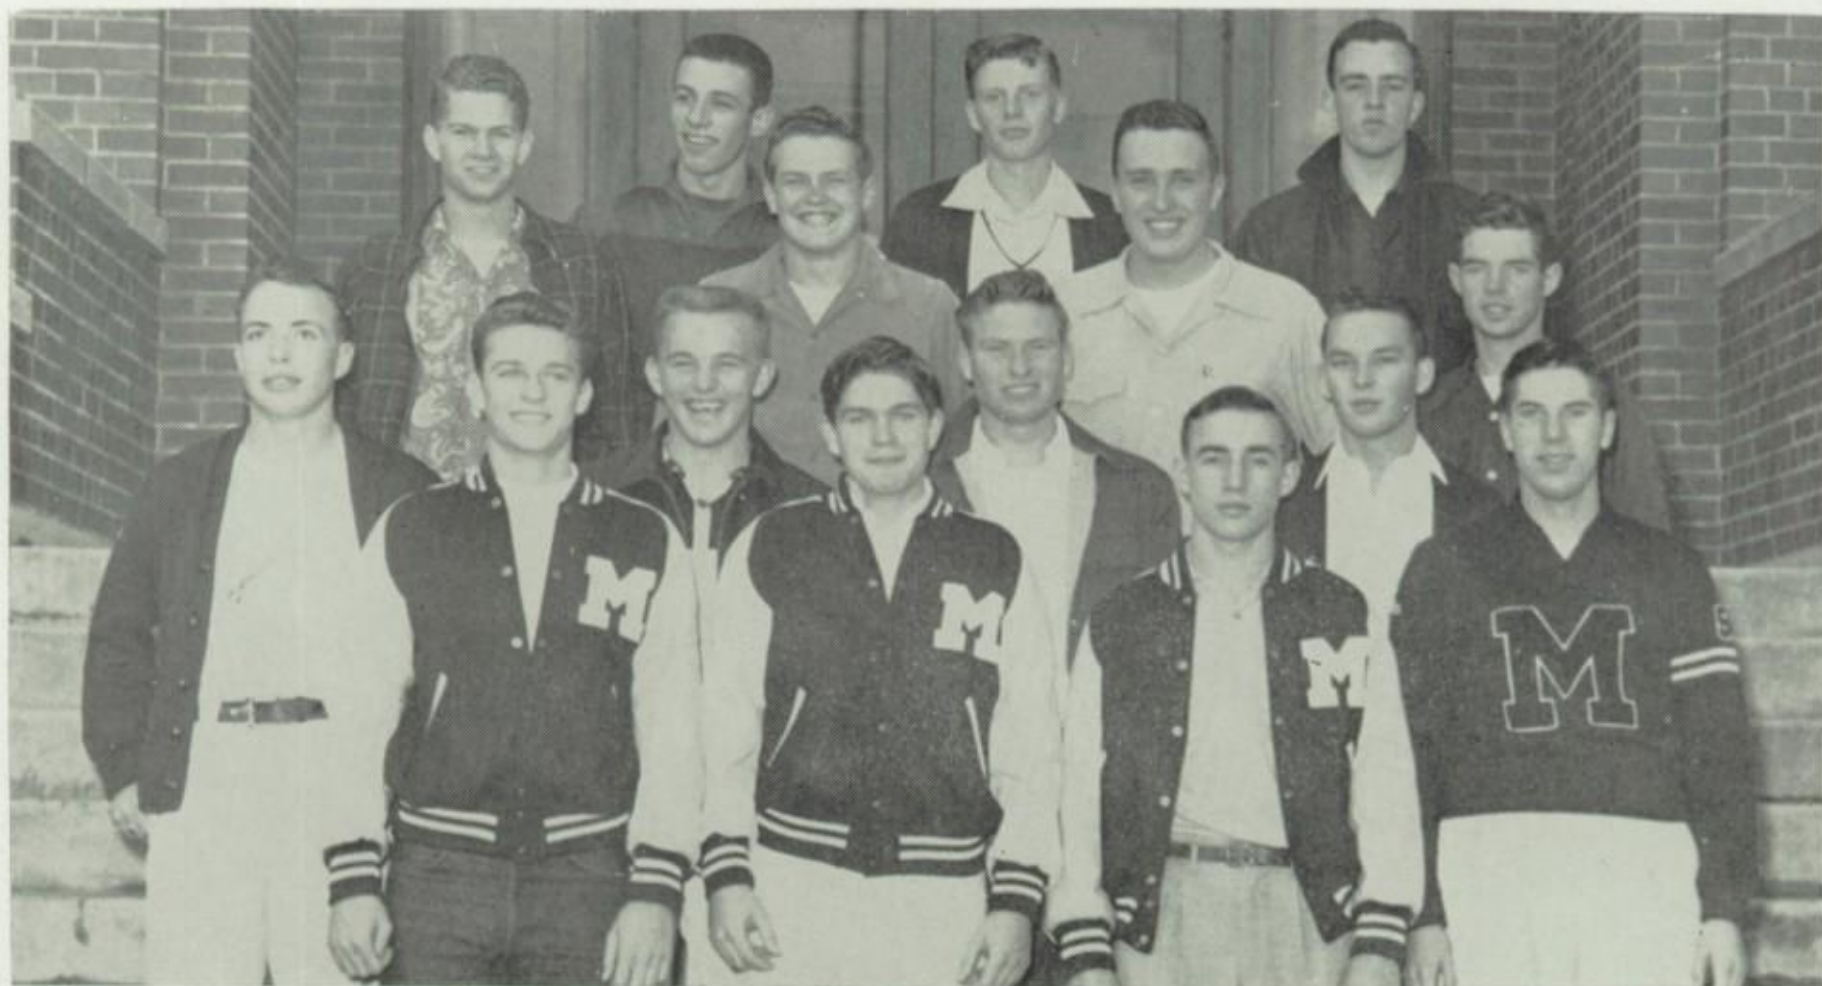

One of the darker periods of the season was when the Bears traveled to South Idaho to play Twin Falls. Moscow just couldn't start rolling (the boys have been looking for an excuse) and the southern team won 26-6. The Bears wound up the season with flying colors in their final game by downing Pullman 20-0. The Bears couldn't be stopped and played the kind of ball the townsfolk were waiting to see.

eighteen seniors inspire team

THE Moscow Bears are losing eighteen football lettermen by graduation. The following are the seniors who were the backbone for the 1952 season.

HARVEY NEESE—a transfer from Texas who inspired the boys with his fancy running.

ARLEN KECK—called signals for the Bears the last two years. He also was a mainstay as a linebacker on defense.

RICH GILLESPIE — end on both defense and offense. He was one of the best pass receivers and elected best blocker by his teammates.

MICKEY McCARTY—offensive center who could be depended on for hippping the ball and blocking. He also played defensive linebacker.

DWANE HODGSON—one of the best linebackers in the state, a utility man in the backfield on offense. Voted inspirational player by his teammates.

CHUCK CANFIELD—left halfback who has done most of the passing for the Bears for the last two years. Played safety and halfback on defense.

BILL HANDEL—defensive and offensive guard who was often the fifth man in the opponents' backfield.

WAYNE REID—offensive right tackle who at times opened big holes for the fleet backs.

MIKE McQUADE—played a lot of ball as tackle on both offensive and defensive.

DAVE HEWITT—played tackle and even though it was his first year of football, was a great asset for the Bears.

RON TISDALL—defensive right end who was hard to move out when the opponents came his way.

JERRY WHEATON — another senior who played his first year of football but helped the team. Weighing 245, Jerry was the biggest man on the team.

JERRY VERNER—right end who saw a lot of action at both defense and offense. Jerry was a fine defensive end.

RANDOLPH MYHRE — defensive and offensive guard who was very rough on defense.

DAVE WATERMAN—defensive guard his senior year and a quarterback his junior year. Dave was one of the mainstays on defense.

JERRY TERTELING — defensive left end who was very rugged when he wanted to be. Jerry was also a utility man.

frosh and sophomores show possibilities for future teams

THE Moscow "B" squad, composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores, showed a lot of fire and determination. Under Coach Parkinson they developed the will to win which is required for any good ball club. As most of the COACH Seth Parkinson headed the Moscow Bears to a very successful season as mentor of the basketball squad. In his second year at M.H.S. Coach Parkinson succeeded in literally master-minding the Bear five to the first District two Tournament Championship in seven years.

Moscow winds up season with good record

UNDER the direction of Coach Seth Parkinson the Bears finished the season with a way-above average seasonal record. Moscow beat Lewiston, the main basketball rival, three out of the four times they met, losing the one by the slim margin of 38-37. Moscow also beat Pullman both of the games they played. With ten of the eleven players on the team graduating the squad for next year will be lacking in experience.

The members of this year's team showed a lot of fire and school spirit and always did their best even when they couldn't seem to get rolling. They never lost heart and always fought till the final buzzer.

In the upper left hand corner Rich Gillespie (8) drops in two points against West Valley. Wade Patterson (12) comes in for the rebound. Left, Art Bedard (14) racks up a basket against Sandpoint. Wade Patterson (12) waits for rebound. Lower left, the Bears' Carroll Anderson puts up a shot against Genesee. In the lower center picture action was rough when Bruce Brenn (7) attempts a layup against Lewiston. Harvey Nail (11) looks on. Lower right, Arlen Keck makes a two pointer against Genesee. Rich Gillespie (8) and Wade Patterson (12) are also pictured.

bears win district title, first in seven years

THE Moscow Bears fought to the first tournament championship in seven years by dropping the Lewiston Bengals twice and the Orofino Maniacs once. Forging through a closely called game, the home five succeeded in leaving the Lewiston team by the wayside in a 51 to 45 defeat.

Starting out slowly and gradually picking up steam, the Bear quintet rolled over the inspired Orofino club 50 to 43. In the championship game the Bears were pitted against the Bengals once again. Ball control characterized the game, thus keeping the score in the thirties. Lewiston hopes fell with two last second shots that failed to go in. The final score found Moscow on top 38 to 37.

This was the first time that a clean sweep in the District Two Tournament had occurred in a number of years.

desperation shot stops bears' hopes at state

From that time on Lady Luck shunned the home five completely. In the last five second of the Rigby game a wild jump shot went through to put Moscow under by one point. Seeking revenge the Bears led the Nampa Bulldogs up to the last seconds. This time a shot with three seconds left to play ended Moscow's tournament hopes by two points.

MOSCOW'S Cubs proved themselves as capable basketball players this season. Although the "B" squad was on the short end of the scoring in many of the games this season they showed that there will be some talent coming up to replace the graduating seniors on the varsity.

Using many freshmen and sophomores on the squad this year Coach Hammond spent much time building a team for next year.

tumbling teams entertain at basketball games

AFTER hard work several boys proved to the school that a tumbling team would be a good idea. The team provided half-time entertainment at the basketball games. Also tumbling at the district tournament won them great acclaim.

cross country team makes good record

CROSS country, a sport which is not too popular around M.H.S., made one of the best seasonal records this year. Jim Harris, Moscow's fastest distance runner, set two speed records this year and was undefeated. Although Jim graduates this year Moscow still has hopes in the future running of Bill Woodbury, Bill Schmidt, and Gary Pedersen.

golf becomes more popular

INTEREST in golf is becoming more intense each year. Although this year's team is mostly inexperienced it was built around two of last year's veterans, Bob Thomas and Ron Scrivner. Future prospects are looking better each year as interest grows.

thinclads have prosperous season

TRACK is considered the most popular of the spring sports and as the usual spring weather rolls around Moscow tracksters can be seen sprinting around the school during the middle of a rain or snow storm. The team made a good showing at state last year and have several returning lettermen. Hopes are fairly high for the team as the annual goes to press. A lot will be expected of Jim Harris, Dwane Hodgson, Arlen Keck, and a few others that made a good showing at state last year. This year in order to qualify for state only first and second winners of the regional meet will be able to go.

Jim Harris sets a new record in the Idaho Invitational Meet.

THE Girls' Athletic Association offers competitive sports in which each girl can earn points for a letter. A six inch letter is the reward of 1,000 points. To earn a trophy, the highest award in G.A.A., a girl must show outstanding ability in several sports.

Under the supervision of Mrs. Pam Long, the G.A.A. has completed another year of activities in girls' sports. Moscow is in a league of five schools competing in speedball, volleyball, basketball, badminton and softball.

Moscow won one game and lost three at the speedball tournament in Lewiston. They were undefeated in the volleyball tournament in Clarkston. The basketball team was hindered by the loss of three main forwards, but lost only to Clarkston.

cheer leaders spark team

AMONG the hardest workers in the school are the cheerleaders. Gail Torpey, Anne Carson and Beverly Bolingbroke, 'A' squad cheerleaders, really did a great job this year rousing school spirit at crucial moments.

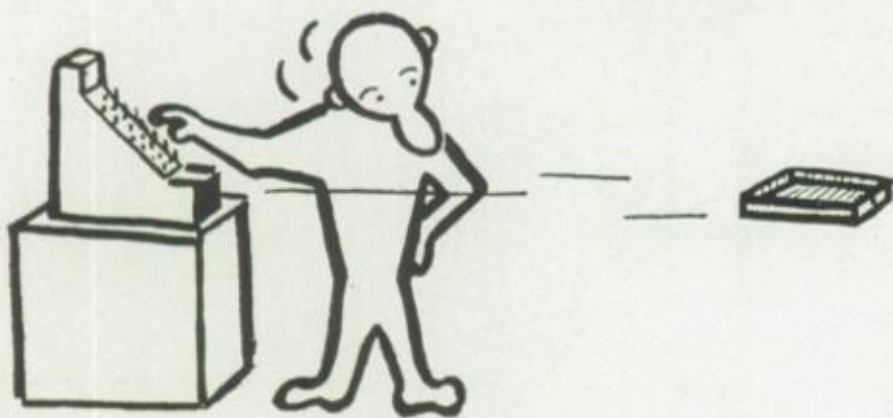

The Junior Varsity cheerleaders, Mary Ann Johnson, Dorothy Bauer, and Kathryn Torpey, did their share in stirring up the spirit of the J.V.'s rooters.
